THE FIRST TROT.

PLETWOOD PARE—SECOND DAY OF SPRING ROTTING MEETING—May 27.—Purse No. 3, $700, or horses that have never beaten 2:48—$400 to the text. $200 to the second and $100 to the third lorse; mile heats, best three in five, in harness.

Quarter. 1:17 1:19% 1:17% 1:18 Becond heat 2:40 2:37 % THE BETTING.

Maynard was the favorite before the start and intil four heats had been trotted, when Walsh went to the front at large odds over the field. Washburn Maid, after winning the sixth heat, had the call over the field at odds, which continued to the end.

THE TROT.

First Heat.—One of the judges shouted "Go!" hile another of them pulled the bell rope for the horses to come back. Ben Mace would not stop. others pulled up and came back to the stand. Ben Mace then claimed the race, but he was told by the judges that it was not a heat, and Ben then had to fail in with the other horses to try his luck a second time. Maynard took the lead at the start, Walter S. second, Washburn Maid third, William Walsh fourth, Midnight fifth. Midnight, Walsh and Waiter broke up on the turn and fell far beseconds, Maynard led one length, Washburn Maid second, three lengths ahead of Walsh; Midnight fourth, Walter S. fith. Maynard was two lengths in front at the half-mile pole in 1:15, Washburn Maid second, ten lengths ahead of Walter S.; Midnight lonarth, Walsh fith. The race then lay between Washburn Maid and Maynard. The latter managed to keep in front to the end, winning the heat by two lengths, Washburn Maid a dozen lengths shead of W. Walsh, Walter S. and Midnight distanced. Time of the heat, 2:34½.

Second, and the Maid third. Rounding the torn Maynard took the front position and led Washburn Maid two lengths to the quarter pole in 39 seconds, and was the same distance ahead at the lift in 1:17, with Walsh three lengths away. Coming up the hill Maynard seemed to tire badly, so that at the three-quarter pole only half a length separated them. In the turn the Maid broke badly, as she did also at the drawgate, which gave Maynard the lead by half a length in 2:38½, with Walsh flour lengths behind the Maid.

Third Heat.—The horses had a most excellent start, but going around the turn Washburn Maid broke up and rell to the rear. Then Walsh broke up and ran in front of Maynard, cutting him off and necessitating his going behind the mare. Walsh then took the lead to the quarter pole, by the fore he made the lower turn he was passed by Washburn Maid. Time to the quarter pole 39 seconds. Maynard cast a shoe after leaving the quarter pole, and lay back for the remainder of the heat. Washburn Maid passed the half-mile pole in 1:19½, three lengths ahead of Waish, the latter three lengths in front of Maynard, Going up the backstretch Walsh closed gradually on Washburn Maid, and was lapped on her at the three-quarter pole. Washburn Maid to near the quarter pole washburn Maid, and washburn haid took the lead, Maynard several lengths behind. The quarter pole m 1:17½, the mare leading two lengths, and she kept in front to the end, winning the heat by two lengths in 2:30 Maynard several lengths behind. The horses had another hind. At the quarter pole, which was passed in 40 ids, Maynard led one length, Washburn Maid cond, three lengths ahead of Walsh; Midnight the gap open, won the heat in 2:39%. Maynard a dozen lengths behind.

Sizth Heat.—The horses got away on even terms, but near the quarter pole Washburn Maid and Walsh broke up. The mare recovered first and led past the pole in 40 seconds. She opened a wide gap to the hair-mile pole in 1:19%, and came home a very easy winner by lour lengths in 2:44, W. Walsh second, Maynard third.

Seventh Heat.—Washburn Maid went away with the lead, was never headed and won very handly. She trotted the first quarter in 38% seconds, the haif mile in 1:16%, and the heat in 2:37%.

Washburn Maid won the first prize, W. Walsh the second and George Maynard the third.

Crown Prince won tas heat by six lengths in 2:77%, Bruno second, one length in front of Barney Kelly.

Third Heat.—The horses were sent away well togetner, but soon Barney Kelly fed in the rear, as Bruno and Crown Prince outpaced him around the turn and down to the quarter pole, which they passed head, and head in 36% seconds, Barney Kelly six lengths behind. Before making the lower turn Crown Prince left his feet, and Bruno took a lead of four lengths. He broke up before reaching the half-mile pole, but was two lengths in front as he passed that point in 1:12%, crown Prince reaching the half-mile pole, but was two lengths in front as he passed that point in 1:12%, crown Prince reaching the half-mile pole, but was two lengths in front as he passed that point in 1:12%, crown Prince reaching the half-mile pole, and coming on gamely under the whip, won the heat by a length in 2:26%. Barney Kelly was a dozen length in 2:26%. Barney Kelly was a dozen length in 2:26%. Barney Kelly was a dozen length behind.

Fourth Heat—Bruno had the best of the send off. Crown Prince excond, Barney Kelly both broke up, and Bruno led to that point four lengths in 37 seconds. Barney Kelly both broke up, and Bruno led to that point four lengths in assecond, lour lengths shead of Crown Prince and Barney Kelly both broke again, and Crown Prince took second place. Bruno was still four lengths in front at the half-mile pole in 1:18, Crown Prince second, fity yards in iront of Barney Kelly.

Fith Heat.—Bruno was first away, Earney Kelly yards in iront of Barney Kelly.

Fith Reat.—Bruno was first away, Earney kelly second, Crown Prince cook up. Barney oned in a little two quickly, and Crown Prince had to go in the pocket. He, however, found an opening on the way to the quarter pole, being a length behind. Barney broke up on the lower turn, and all his chances of winning were over. Bruno led Crown Prince to the sore the race was exciting, as Bruno, after recovering from the break, closed gradually all the way up, and finally won the heat by a

THE NATIONAL GUARD PARADE.

The spiendid weather yesterday afternoon contributed in no small degree to make the parade of the First division of the National Guard S. N. Y.

The time appointed for the troops to march past was half-past four o'clock, but long before that hour every available foot of standing room on the reviewing stand was occupied. The stand was Fifth avenue. Governor Dix and staff arrived on the ground at twenty minutes past four o'clock. In front of the reviewing stand, and to the right and left of it on both sides of that part of Fifth avenue which runs through Washington square, the crowds of spectators were extremely dense. It was with much difficulty that the police could keep back the people. Their pressure to the front was at one time so great that the chain which runs between the posts placed along the eastern side of the street gave way, and the crowd rushed pell-men into the space in front of the stand, and defled for a time the efforts of the police to clear it. Up and down the avenue, and along the streets where the different regiments marched, and at the general rendezvous, on Madison avenue, the gatherings of expectant citizens were surpris-

The line of march was taken up at four o'clock from the point d'appui at Madison avenue and Thirty-fourth street, through the latter place to Fifth avenue and thence down to Washington square, where the head of the column arrived at twenty-five minutes past four, the Governor and The Commander-in-Chief was attired in a plain suit of black, without any insignia of rank. Among the distinguished citizens who accompanied him or formed part of his personal staff were the following gentlemen:—Major General McDowell, United States Army; Mr. John Jay, late Minister at Vienna; Baron Von Schweintz, ex-Senator Beekman, Major General Husted, General D. P. Wood, Adjutant General Rathbone, N. G. S. N. Y.; General G. Duryee, Comptroller Green, Mr. L. Brad-ford Prince, Alderman McCafferty, A. J. Beers, Colonel K. The Ninety-sixth Regiment. Colonel Andrew Stauf, late Ninety-sixth regiment, N. G. S. N. Y., whose recent trial by court martial and conviction upon the grave charge of disobedience of orders, is fresh in the minds of military men in this city, has had his sentence remilitary men in this city, has had his sentence remitted by the Commander-in-Chief at the recommendation of the Major General commanding the First division, National Guard. Colonel Staul has been reinstated in command of his old regiment. His renabilitation is to take effect from the 20th inst. He was to have command of the Ninety-sixth on yesterday's parade. The sentences of Lieutenapt Colonel Peter Hemmer and Major Frederick Kioeffel, both of the same regiment, who were tried at the same time with Colonel Staul, and on identical charges, are confirmed and will be executed.

The Annual Dinner of the Veterans of the Ninth Regiment.

The third annual dinner of the veterans of the Ninth regiment came off last evening in the Spingler House in Union square. The tables were spread for about seventy-five tables were spread for about seventy-five guests, and among the invited were Lieutenant Governor Robinson, General Neison Taylor, General Duryea and General Hendrickson. The room was gaily decorated with the flags and banners of the regiment. After partaking of an excellent dinner the cloth was removed. Colonel H. V. Wilhamson made the opening address of the evening, and alluded in glowing terms to the status and condition of the regiment. The following boasts were then given and responded to:—"The Freeidentof the United States," Colonel C. S. Strong; "Army and Navy," Captain Robert G. Rutherford; "Our Old Cormanders," General Allen Rutherford; "Nint", Regiment," Cotonel Braine; "Old and New Members of the Ninth," G. Schoonmacker; "The Day We Cetebrate," Captain George Tutte, and "Lovely Woman," Charles McLaughlin, The proceedings passed off with colat and did not terminate until an early hour this morning.
